The cost of the building was $3,000 and the ground $2,000, making a total of $5,000, for the payment of which these enterprising citizens have bonded the town.

The school is under the management of the following board of trustees: W. J. Winegar, Judge Thompson, B. L. by special permission. Then came Lilienthal, to whom the citizens of Palatka Heights are deeply indebted for school to its present standing.

To aid in various important improvements needed, entertainments are given, and last night the second consisted of a calico ball, a project of the ladies of Palatka Heights to raise funds to meet the demands made necessary by the increasing attendance. The ladies who formed themselves into a committee for this purpose were Mrs. W. J. Winegar. Mrs. E. Whiteside, Mrs. B. L. Lilienthal and Miss Dora Thompson.

In the early part of the evening numerous carriages arrived bearing many smiling faces of Palatka's fair daughters

At 9 o'clock Hagan's string band struck up a lively air and the programme opened with a Virginia reel, which was followed by fifteen dances. The following was the Thompson's Bromine-Arsenic Spring in Ashe County, N. C., Creating a Sensation. J. W. Hay in New York World.

ELIZABBTH, TENN., October 10 .- I have overed by little Willie Barker, in the Sub-Tropical. nountains of North Carolina. The story of its discovery has frequently been told in the local papers how little Willie cleared leaves from a drain in the rocks to get water for his father working the corn near by, and next morning found that the "poison oak sores" on his arm had healed wherever the water had touched. "Go back," said the old man, 'and wash all over!" And next morning the eruption was gone.

It is called a "poison spring" either because of its effect on this eruption or from the arsenic it contains.

After the lad's experience with its healing properties was made known, the mountain population flocked to it from The beautiful edifice known as the Pa- miles around. On a Sunday it seemed stantial two-story building fifty-two by were brought, and on these occasions there might sometimes be counted a ment to Mr. Joseph Price was an-

often ended in a free fight. When an invalid from Sattville, Va., a Captain Thompson, moved up to the spring and camped near a tent, he found this state of things insupportable, and bought the property in self-defense. It was inclosed and entrance gained only trouble. The mountain men declared that no one man should own that their untiring efforts in bringing the spring, and if Captain Thompson didn't move out they would move in. A crowd of bullies armed and went down to execute the threat. The Captain heard of their approach, loaded his rifle and took a stand by the spring. "The first man who enters that gate," said he, guaranteed. Call on or write to Mr. when they came near-"the first man Kennedy. who enters that gate will be shot dead." They had mistaken their man. From

The water oozes up into a slight cavity blasted in the rock and is caught and bottled as fast as it trickles out. The demand for it is very great, a large portion being used at the spring. To the taste the water is pure and very cold, its mineral property being scarcely perceptible, but its effec's are unusual and remarkable, as, indeed, is the analysis, for besides the "bromine and arsenic," which give the water its name, it contains lithium, iodine, potash and a phos-J. We have in our possession a curiosity of nature's own work presented to us by Mr. T. C. Butler. It is a cypress shingle just from his mills and it shows where, in times, presumably some years ago, an ax had been driven into the tree making a large hollow, and the sap of the tree had ultimately grown over this hole, completely filling it up in such a manner that before the tree was cut down and nade into shingles it would have been utterly impossible to have detected any sign of an indention, the wound having healed thoroughly. FRANCIS, February 2. The weather that has been a little erratic lately, and has given us rather an ngentle reminder that real, genuine winter exists somewhere, has become quite Florida-like again. And while we Floridians like and enjoy many things that come to us from the Northern States, we don't exactly admire the kind of weather they send us some times, and it. Our real Florida weather suits us much real damage; a few very small tender growths on small orange trees, and some of our beautiful roses, were considerably discouraged-look like they

My wife for many years was afflicted with a blood disease which buffled the most skillful treatment and finally resulted in a very large ulcerated and ugly looking running sore on one of her limbs. I tried every known remedy, such as the sarsaparilla and potash mixtures and prescriptions of the best physicians with no benefit in any way. A few months ago my attention was called to S. S. S. I procured some of this medicine, which she began to take and in a short time increased in flesh and strength, and the sore, which was then larger than my hand and reached to the hone, began to heal. She had been in such a terrible condition for years and was so near death's door at the time she commenced the S. S. S. that I refrained from making the facts known to the public. I publicly make this statement for the benefit of all who are afflicted as my wife was.
